

International Topper Class World Championships

2013 International Topper Class World Championships July 21st to July 26th 2013

The International Committee is pleased to announce that the 2013 International Topper World Championships will be held at Cercle Nautique de Loctudy (Loctudy Sailing Club) www.cnloctudy.com/ from Sunday July 21st until Friday July 26th.

The Cercle Nautique de Loctudy (CNL) is a small sailing club in southern Brittany and racing will take place in the blue waters of the Bay of Biscay.

We have already prepared "How to get there" and "Tourist Information" to assist you with your preparations. The International Committee is in discussions with the Club, the municipality and Brittany Ferries to ensure the best possible options for sailors participating in this year's event. Please watch the web site for further information (www.itcaworld.org)

This year we are planning to hold:

- International Topper 5.3m2 World championships (open)
- International Topper 4.2m2 World Championships (open)
- International Topper European Masters

Watch for the notice of race which will be prepared and published shortly.

There will be space near to the club for a limited number of motorhomes. If you would like to reserve a place please contact the Secretary.

For further information contact the secretary (secretary@itcaworld.org)